

Shape of Template

We align the template with the spring cavity and place the front Line FLUSH with the front edge of the tone block cavity. Depending on how wide the existing cavity is, the Back Line of the template may or MAY NOT be flush with the back of the cavity. It is alright to let the router bit run along the back edge of the cavity